2023 BC Regional Mining Alliance Bursary Program

The BC Regional Mining Alliance (“BCRMA”) is a regional partnership between Indigenous Nations, industry and provincial government representatives that collaborate to attract and enable investments in BC’s mining activities through meaningful partnerships.

The BCRMA is committed to strengthening capacity development with Indigenous Nations and is launching the BCRMA Bursary Program by awarding up to four $2,500 bursaries to students pursuing a career in the mining industry.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

To be eligible for this BCRMA Bursary, applicants must:

- Be a member of the Nisga'a Nation;
- Be enrolled in post-secondary studies in the mining field; and
- Have a valid social insurance number.

APPLICATION DETAILS:

Interested applicants must submit the following items:

- Completed BC Regional Mining Alliance Bursary Program Application Form;
- Resume detailing relevant background information; and
- Two reference letters supporting your application.

Applications must be sent to Candice Appleby (cappleby@amebc.ca), BCRMA Manager, by September 29, 2023 at 4:00 PM PST.

REVIEW DETAILS:

Applications will be reviewed by a selection committee who will confirm eligibility of all applicants and select up to four applicants to receive a BCRMA Bursary.

All applicants will be informed of the status of their application by October 13, 2023.
